

Note Taking - Applied

Point of the Assignment: To give you practice applying your note taking skills.

Now that you have learned about different note taking styles, you are going to practice taking notes in one style, and then practice reviewing your notes by translating them into another style. On the following pages, you will see examples of three different styles:

Outline --

Cornell --

Mind Mapping --

1. Which style best represents the way you think? _____

This should be your primary style – you should take notes in this style

2. Which style would be good for a backup style? _____

This should be the style you use to create your review notes.

Your Homework for this topic:

Attach, to this assignment, both 1) your primary notes from the in-class exercise and 2) your review style notes.

Test your understanding:

What is the main point of this assignment?

Why were you expected to do this exercise?

What type of person would need to do this exercise?

How well do you fit the profile of the person for whom this assignment was created?

Reflection: (Write down your response after completing this assignment.)

Types of Schools & Colleges

1. Public Schools

(Primarily funded by state government)

a. California Educational Master Plan for higher education

i. California Community Colleges

1. (Mt San Antonio College)
2. (Chaffey College)

ii. California State University

1. (CSU Fullerton)
2. (CSU San Bernardino)

iii. University of California

1. (UC Riverside)
2. (UC Irvine)

b. Local Adult Schools

- i. (Claremont Adult School)

c. Public Vocational Schools

- i. (Valley Vocational School)

2. Private Schools & Colleges

(Paid mostly by student tuition fees)

a. Vocational Schools

- i. (United Technical Institute)
- ii. (Bryman College)

b. For-Profit Schools

- i. (DeVry University)
- ii. (University of Phoenix)

c. Private Liberal Arts Colleges

- i. (Scripps College)
- ii. (University of LaVerne)

1. Religiously-Affiliated Schools

- a. (Azusa Pacific University)
- b. (Biola University)
- c. (Brigham Young University)

Higher Education in California

Public =

State-Supported
Schools

California Master Plan

- Community Colleges
- California State University
- University of California

Private =

Supported by tuition

- Vocational
- For Profit
- Private Liberal-Arts
- Religiously-Affiliated

Public Schools

(Primarily funded by state government)

California Educational Master Plan for higher education

California Community College

(Mt San Antonio College)

(Cypress College)

California State University

(CSU Fullerton)

(CSU San Bernardino)

University of California

(UC Riverside)

(UC Irvine)

Local Adult Schools

(Claremont Adult School)

Public Vocational Schools

(Valley Vocational School)

Private Schools & Colleges

(Paid mostly by student tuition fees)

Vocational Schools

(United Technical Institute)

(Bryman College)

For-Profit Schools

(DeVry University)

(University of Phoenix)

Private Liberal Arts Colleges

(Scripps College)

(University of LaVerne)

Religiously-Affiliated Schools

(Azusa Pacific University)

(Biola University)

(Mt. St. Mary's)

Summary:

In California, colleges and universities can be either public or private schools. Public schools include vocational and adult schools and the California Master Plan for Higher Education: Community Colleges, CSUS and UCS. Private schools can be either non-profit or for-profit. There are vocational, liberal arts and religious schools.

